Mr. Chris Jones
Senior Campaign Finance Analyst
Reports Analysis Division
Federal Election Commission

Dear Mr. Jones:

This letter is in response to your letter dated August 18, 2010 regarding the Citizens for Turner July Quarterly Report.

Your letter referenced the committees compliance with regulations requiring the committee to disclose the identification of all individuals whose aggregate contribution exceeds $200 in the election cycle.

The Citizens for Turner Campaign has fully complied with the best efforts requirements. As required by Federal Law, all of our original solicitations include a clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information and informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information. Samples of solicitation materials are provided.

If such information is not provided, a follow up mailing is sent within 30 days requesting the missing information without soliciting a contribution. A pre-addressed return envelope is provided as well as a fax number for convenient return. A sample of this letter is provided.

Additionally, our staff also makes follow-up phone calls as a final attempt to collect contributor information.

If additional information is received after the report has been filed, an amendment will be filed.

Please be assured that the Citizens for Turner Campaign takes great care to comply with Federal Election law and has complied with the Federal Election Commission best efforts requirements as delineated in its Regulations at 11CFR 104.7(b).

Regards,

Michael Berning
